And the Art of Dancing done by M^r Weaver —

Printed for I. Walsh, Serv^t in Ordinary to Her Majesty at the Harp and Hoboy in Katherine Street in y^e Strand. and I. Hare at y^e Viol and Flute in Cornhill near the Royal Exchange —

The Generall Approbation the Characters of Dancing has met with in most parts of Europe is a sufficient Demonstration of its Usefulness, since no person who has applyed him self to Studye it but what has acknowledg'd himself much Improv'd by this Art,

It were to be wishd that those Masters (who either thro Prejudice or Mistaken Notions) have not yet attaind to it woud consider it as necessary as the Notes of Musick.

The only Objection that seems to be of Weight is that y^e Characters will not teach a particular manner of Dancing. this in some part must be allowed, & the same may be objected against Musick or even Common Printing, but sure no one for that reason will pretend that those Arts are unnecessary, especially for an Instructor.

As it is thro M^r. Isaacs extensive goodness wee in England enjoy y^e Benefit of y^e Characters, it's not to be doubted but his curious Compositions will be Lasting Examples to Futurity.
