The PUBLISHER to the READER.

TIS well known that great variety of small, and trifling Collections of Dances, many of them Old ones with new Names, have been impos'd upon the public for a considerable time; and each having in a manner, the same things over and over with little or no alteration; insomuch, that the Buyer, for to purchase only few particular Things, is put to the Trouble, and unnecessary charge of having many of a sort: and those who would make a Compleat Collection, are furnish'd, even to a Burthen, with Duplicates; Therefore, that Persons may not be liable to these, and the like inconveniences hereafter: The Publisher has with great care Collected this, the second and third Volumes of the Dancing Master, containing all the most valuable that has been Published these seven Years; so that the three Volumes include all the Dances in esteem that are extant, with at least 50 New ones, not Printed before.

N. B. Some of the Dances bearing two Names, and being two several ways Performed, both are here put down under the Tunes, so that the performer may take which he pleases, which was done by the advice of several Eminent Masters, who were at the Trouble of Correcting this whole Work.

A D V E R T I S E M E N T.

THE Compleat Music-Master, being Plain, Easy, and Familiar Rules for Singing, and Playing on the most useful Instruments now in Vogue, Viz. First all join Hand in Hand, and Face to the Presence, then all lead to the Presence and back again.

{ Friends each with Sister, thus in order stand,
For sure the Godly may joyn hand in hand;
In Vertue's Paths tread firm, as Oaks do grow,
But from all Sin, like Crabs let's backward go.

Here the first two Couple give Right-hands, and take Left a whole round; next Men and We. Facing each other, the two first Couple Nod Heads at each other and afterwards take Hands. then all four go once round, and the first Couple cast off below the second Couple.

{ Joyn not with those, who ha'n't the Light within,
Who are in darkness, and in deadly Sin;
But with thy Holy Brethren joyn thy Might,
Who have, like us, the Sanctify'd Light:

Then each Friend standing opposite to his Sister after he has repeated these two Verses, he Kisses her;

{ And tho' we'll not clap hands, nor Congies make,
Yet we'll nod heads, and hands we'll Friendly shake;
Which done, thus joyn'd in love once round we'll go,
Next, ye walk up, and we'll cast off below.

Then turning to the second Woman, havig repeated these Verses Kisses her also.

{ But as this Mirth doth much my Spirit move,
So I to thee thus testify my Love;
And least, O Sister, thou should'st take this ill,
(The Spirit bears to thee, the same good will.
