

Copy-right secured according to Act of Congress, Sep. 30th 1825 by John Cole, of the State of Maryland.

A new set of COTILLIONS

Composed and arranged for the

Piano Forte,

And respectfully dedicated to his

Pupils

By

A. H. DUROCHER.

N^o 1.

Price 37½

Published by John Cole, Baltimore.

ELOISA.

No 1

Da Capo.

Da Capo.

Bow and Curtesy — Eight all round — Right and left four, and back to place — Balance and turn partners — Ladies chain — Half promenade — Half right and left to place — Side couples do the same. The figure commences with the first part.

2

MARIA.

No

2

Da Capo.

Forward two—Cross over—Chasse de chasse—

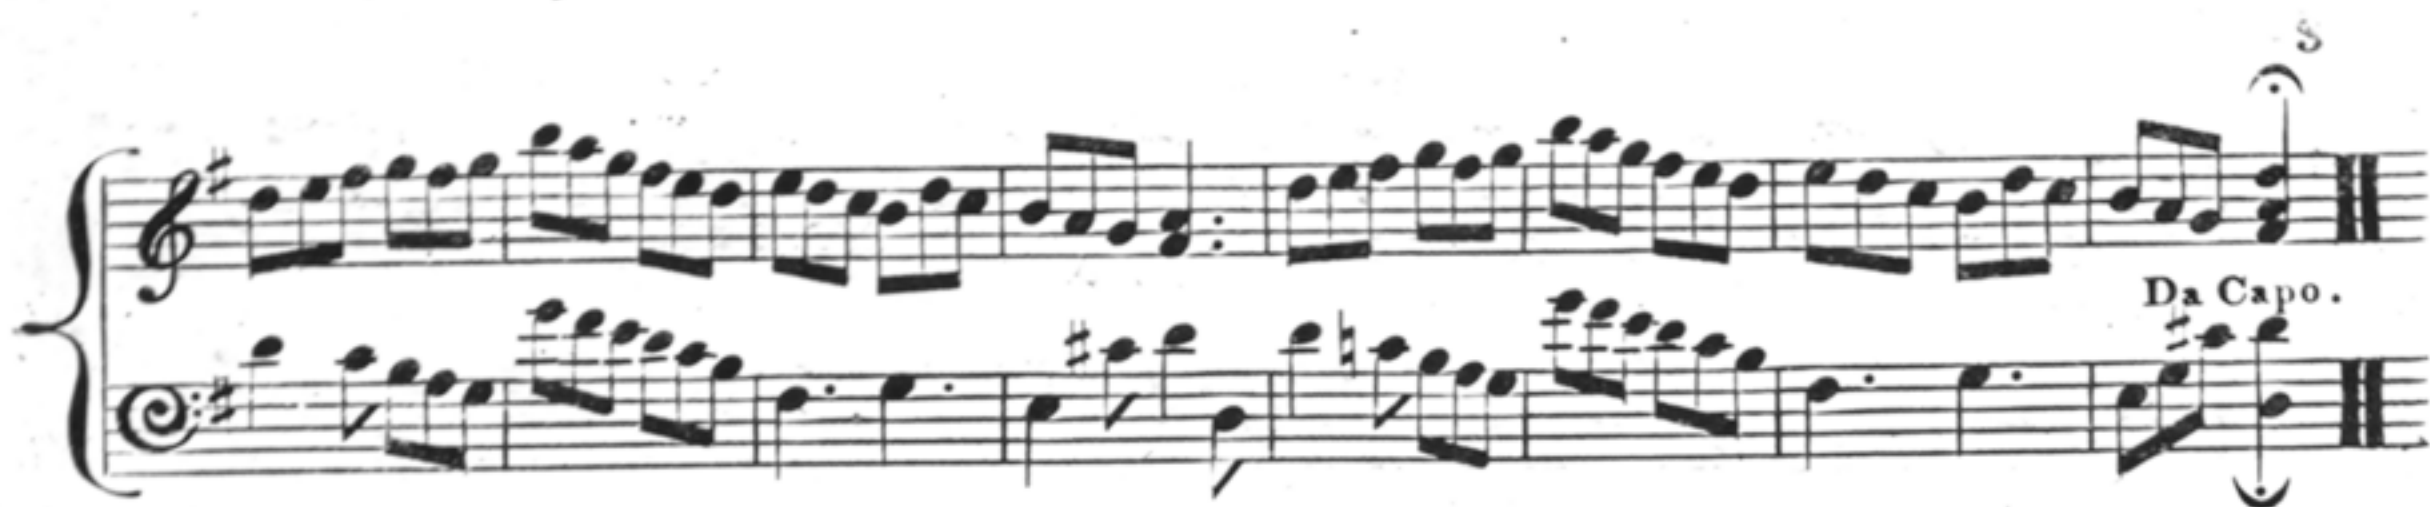

Cross over to your place—Balance and turn partners.

CAROLINE.

No

3

Fine.

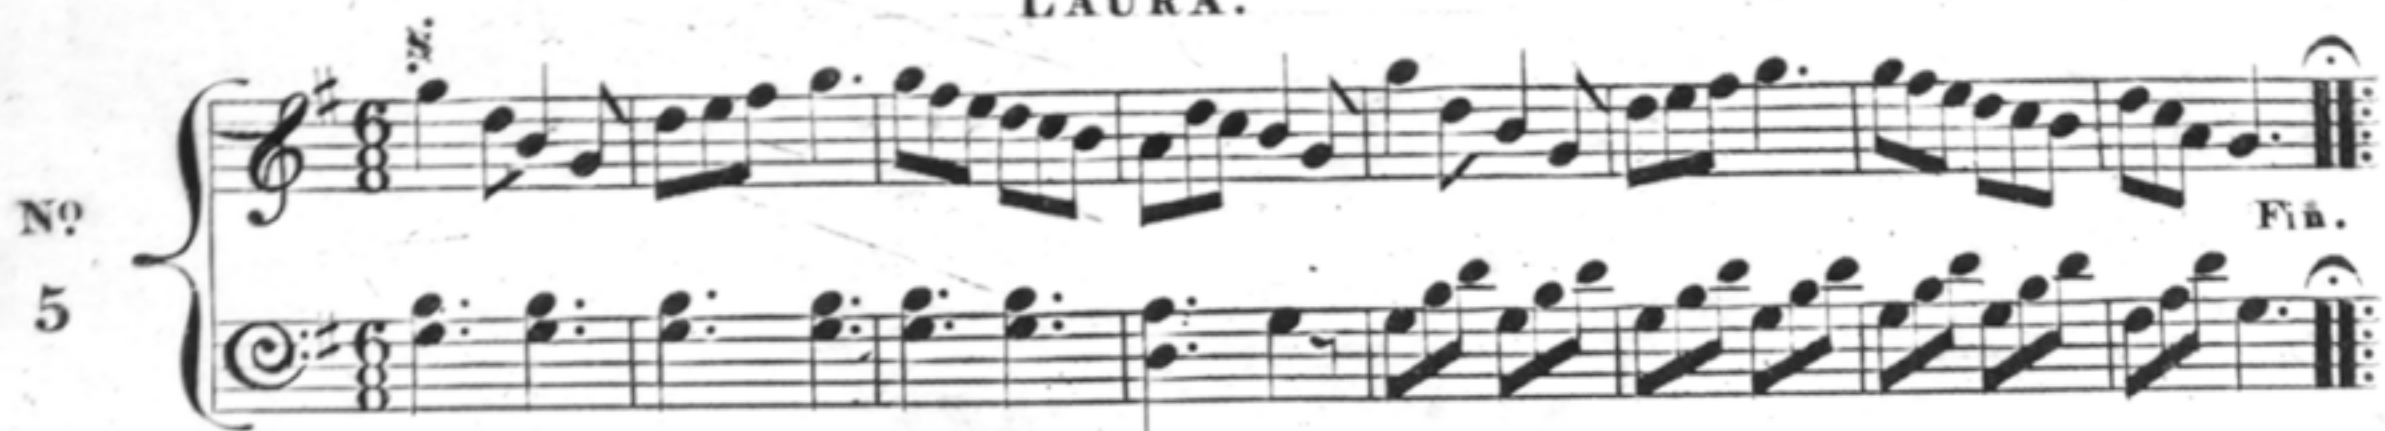

One couple forward and back twice
 Chasse across — de chasse
 Forward two and back
 Dos a dos — Bow and Curtesy
 Balance and turn hands round
 The others do the same.

ELIZABETH.

Forward two — Cross over
 Chasse de chasse — Cross over to your place
 One Lady forward twice — Gentleman the same
 Half promenade — Half right and left to your place.

LAURA.

Forward two — Cross over — Chasse de Chasse
 Cross over to your place — Lead to the side —
 Change partners — Four Ladies forward twice —
 Four Gent: the same — Cross over right hands all eight —
 Then the left hands — Round with your partner, and promenade all round.