1st Lady and Gentleman advance to the couple on their right, bow, then advance to the opposite side couple, and bow to them, all the four face partners, advance, retire and chassey into places; the top and bottom couples half right and left the same as in the first figure of the first set of Quadrilles.

GREAT EASTERN.
1st figure.

No 5.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time. It consists of two main sections. The first section, 'GREAT EASTERN. 1st figure.', begins with a treble and bass staff. The treble staff starts with a forte (ff) dynamic and a half note chord, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A repeat sign is placed after the first measure of the treble staff. The second section, 'VILLAGE BELLS.', is marked with a piano (p) dynamic and features a more melodic line in the treble staff, with the bass staff continuing the accompaniment. The score concludes with a final cadence in the treble staff.

SENSATION.

2nd figure.

A handwritten musical score for a piece titled "SENSATION." The score is written on six systems of grand staves, each consisting of a treble and bass clef joined by a brace. The first system begins with a forte dynamic marking "f". The notation is in a common time signature, indicated by a "C" on the first staff. The music features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. There are several slurs and phrasing marks throughout the piece. The final system concludes with a double bar line. The paper is aged and shows some minor staining and a small insect mark near the bottom center.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time. It consists of six systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clef). The first system begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The melody in the treble clef is characterized by rapid sixteenth-note passages, often beamed in groups of four. The bass clef provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

THE CURE.

9

A musical score for a piece titled 'THE CURE'. The score is written for piano and consists of six systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The first system begins with a forte 'f' dynamic. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system features a more complex accompaniment with sixteenth-note chords in the bass. The fourth system starts with a fortissimo 'ff' dynamic. The fifth system continues the piece. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final cadence. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.
