122.

The musical score is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It consists of four systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked 'M.M. 108' with a musical notation example (quarter note, eighth note, eighth note). The first system contains two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The second system continues the piece and includes first and second endings, marked with '1.' and '2.' above the treble staff. The third system also includes first and second endings, marked with '1.' and '2.' above the treble staff. The fourth system is labeled 'Trio.' and features a more complex melodic line in the treble staff with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes, while the bass staff continues with chords. The score concludes with a double bar line.

§ 921. M.M. 60 ♩ . Introduction a.

Introd. b.

124.

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of four systems of staves. The first system is labeled '124.' and includes the 'Introduction a.' and 'Introd. b.' markings. The notation features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The piano accompaniment is characterized by block chords and moving bass lines. The melody is primarily in the right hand, with some instances of the left hand playing a melodic line. The score is presented in a clear, legible format with standard musical notation.
